First Information About New Things for Fall.

Newset Drea Goods

Counters, tables and shelves are heaped to overflowing, yet all the new things are not in, and many of those already here not even price marked. Come along, though, we gladly show them because, no doubt, you are anxiously waiting to see the warm, rich colorings and beautiful soft texture cloths Dame Fashion has pronounced au fait for fall and winter. Plain weaves have lost none of their popularity, but pattern suitings and a few other fabrics show a decided difference that you will like.

French Flannels for Fall and Winter

More than ever the desired fabrics for shirt waists. More than ever varied as to pattern designs; dainty stripes, dots of all sizes, Persian and other effects shown on soft shade backgrounds, but plenty, too, of the rich, deep colorings. 30c to 90c a yard.
